

BISHOP MUSEUM

THE GREAT MERGE...
Education and Collections!

Amber Inwood

Senior Educator – Project Management & Evaluation

Email: amber.inwood@bishopmuseum.org

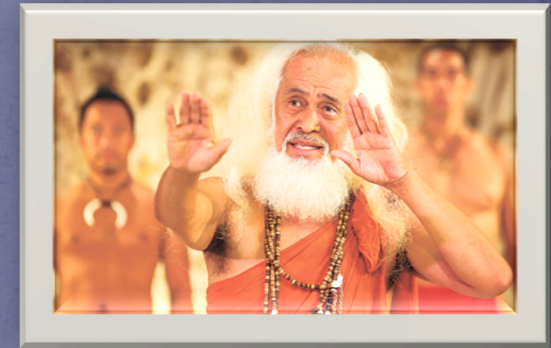

Overview

- Education Department
- Natural Sciences
Education Collections
Connections
- IDigBio – Macro Algae
Education Project
- Online Learning Center

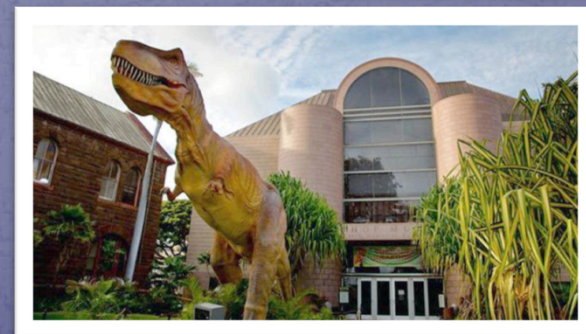

Education Department

- 335,000 visitors annually, including 35,000 students on field trips.
- In the past, served additional 15,000 students and community members through outreach programs.

Education Department

- Staff of Science, Culture and Interpretation Staff. Education Docents.
- Onsite School, Public programs
- Online Presence
- Past Citizen Science and Outreach Initiatives

The Great Merge!

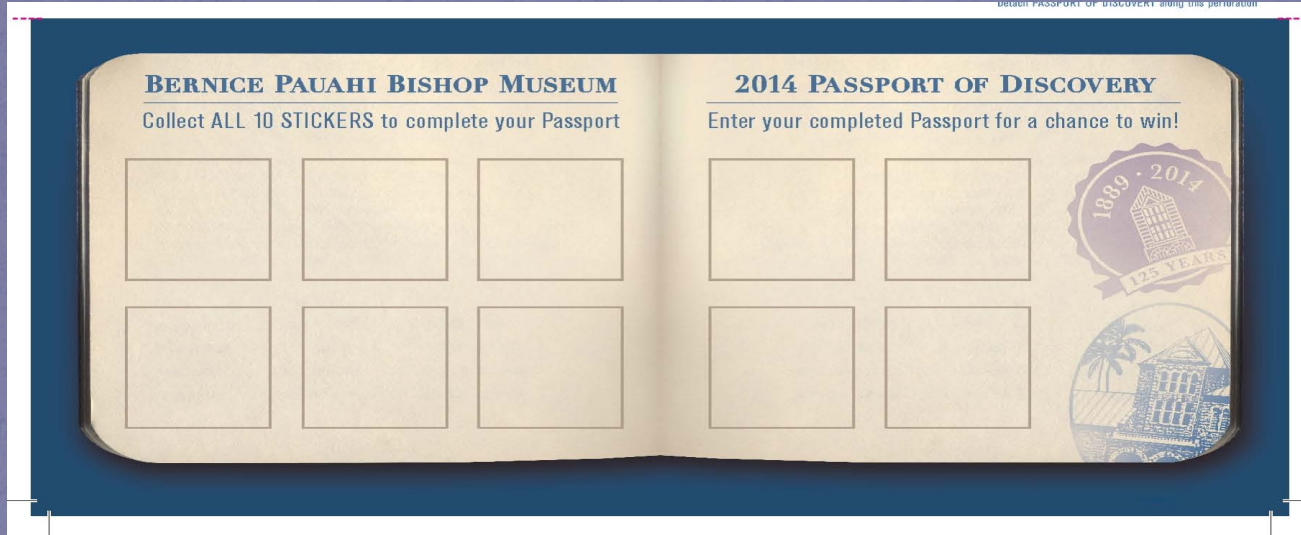

SUNDAY • MARCH 16, 2014

Sponsored by AlternateEnergy

The Great Merge!

SCIENCE IS ALIVE at Bishop Museum!

Archaeology The study of material remains from the past	Botany The study of plants	Entomology The study of insects	Ichthyology The study of fishes	Vertebrate Zoology The study of birds, mammals, reptiles, and amphibians	Malacology The study of mollusks	Invertebrate Zoology The study of marine animals with no backbone

Collection Connections

MALACOLOGY Collection

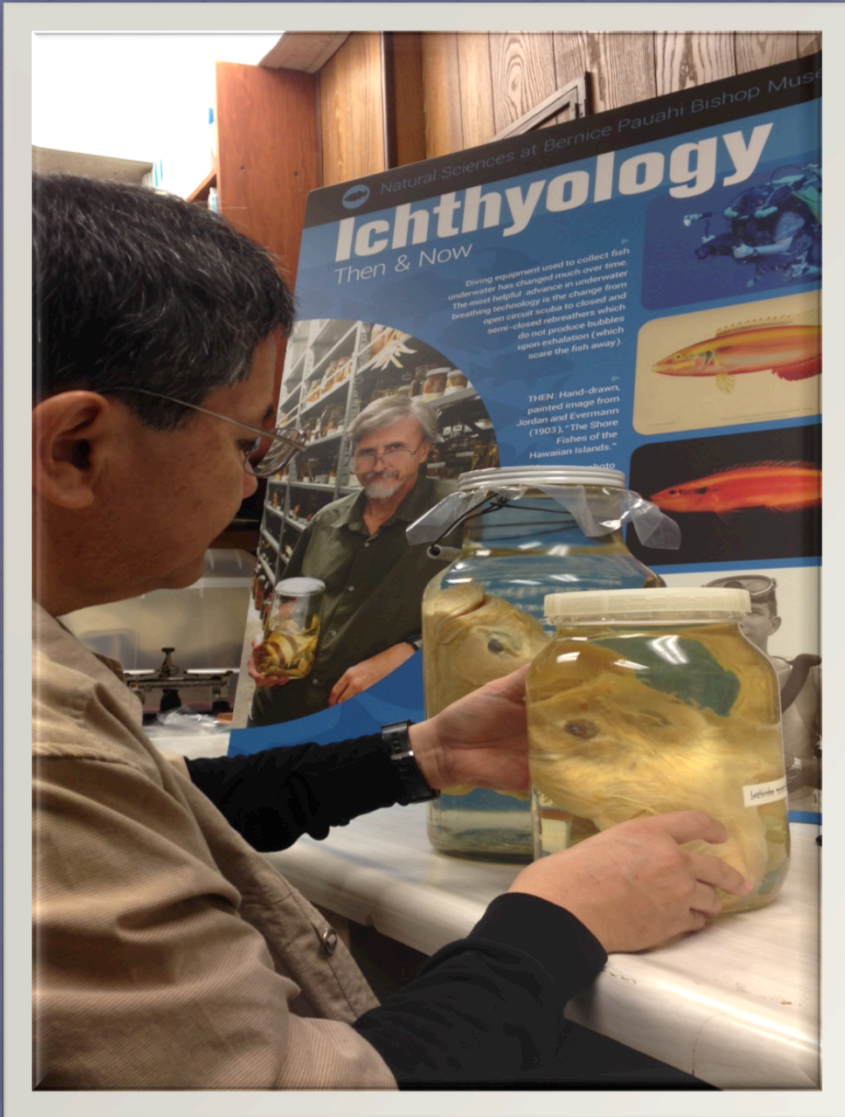

VERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY Collection

INVERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY Collection

ICHTHYOLOGY Collection

ENTOMOLOGY Collection

BOTANY Collection

ARCHAEOLOGY Collections

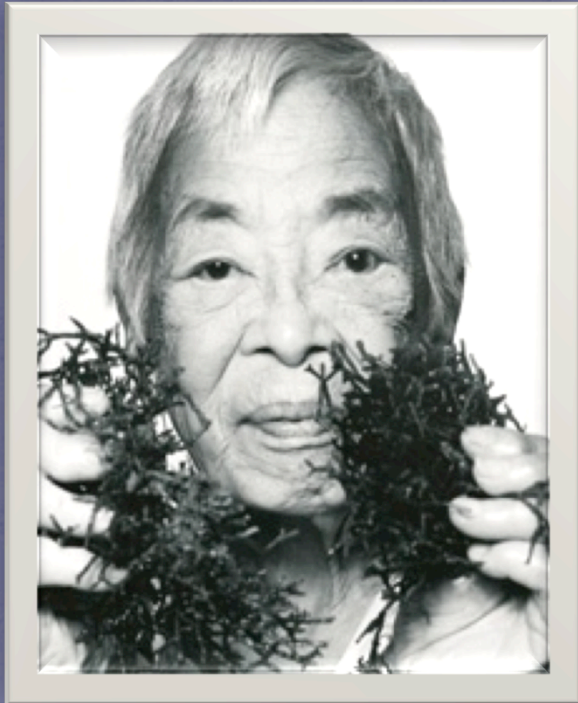

DNA Lab
Pacific Center for Molecular Biodiversity
(PCMB)

TALK SCIENCE!
(Real Life Scientists)

LIMU!

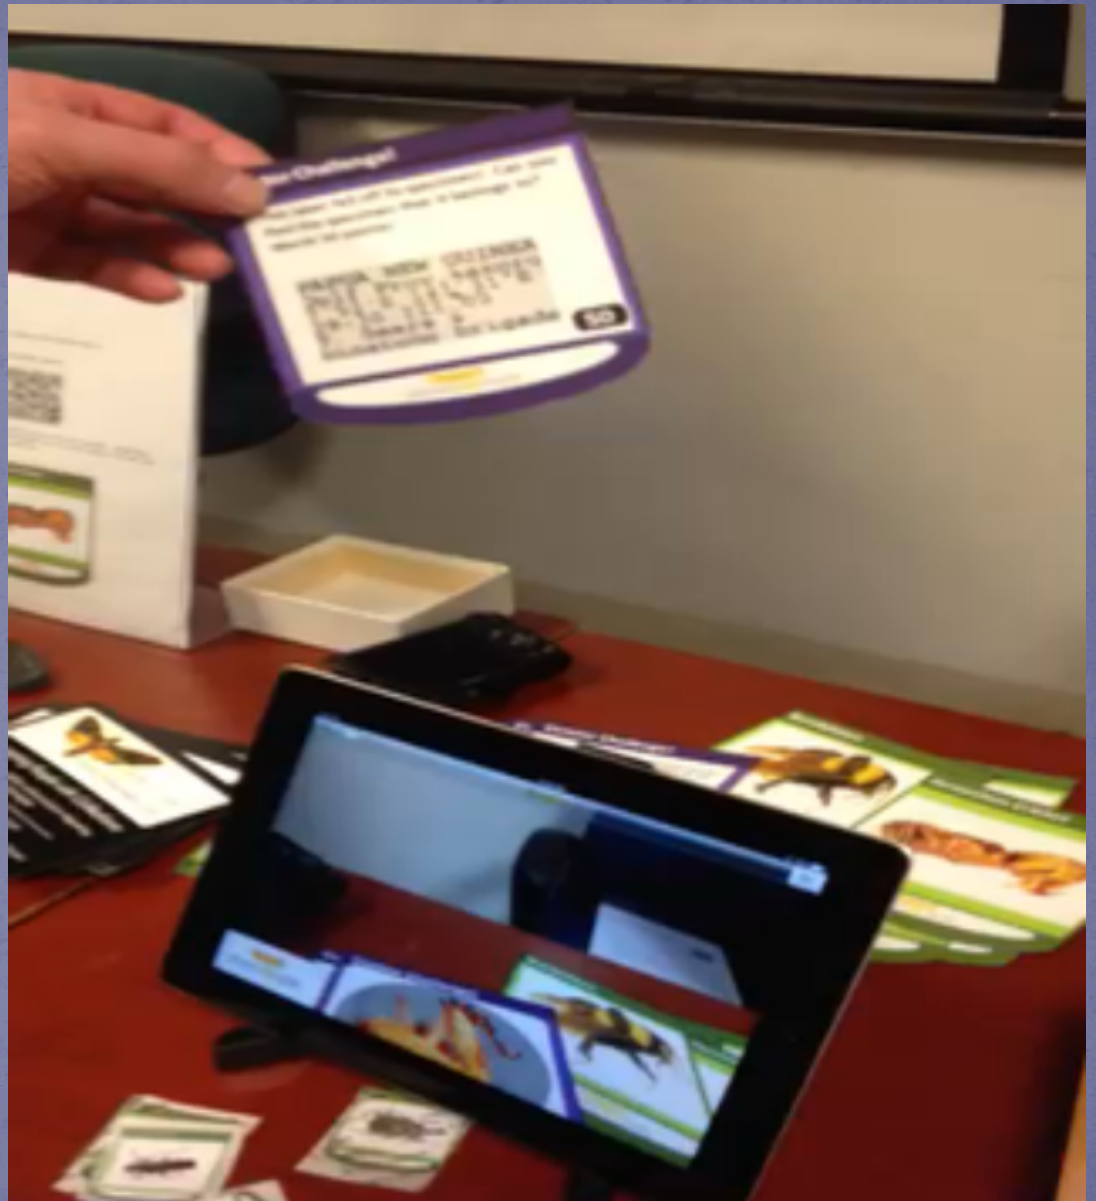

Macro Algae TCN Education

- Digitization – Creating a connection between hands-on in the field and online collection accessibility
- Hawaiian Cultural Significance
- Department of Education (State and Federal Standards): Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS)/Common Core (Language, Arts, Mathematics)
- ‘Piggy Back’ on other Education Initiatives is key.
- Science Adventure Center Activity Cart
- ‘Limu’ Curriculum Unit via ONLINE LEARNING CENTER.

- SCAN TCN PROJECT

Online Learning Center

<http://bishopmuseumeducation.org>